

Health and Safety.

Wightmore School of Dance is committed to ensuring the health, safety and welfare of others, so far as is reasonably practicable. We fully accept our responsibility for other persons who may be affected by our activities and will take steps to ensure that our statutory duties are met at all times. Wightmore School of Dance will ensure that all processes and systems of work are designed to take account of health and safety and are properly supervised at all times. The successful implementation of this policy requires total commitment from all the teaching staff. Each individual has a legal obligation to take reasonable care for their own health and safety, and for the safety of other people who may be affected by their acts or omissions. This policy will be regularly monitored to ensure that the objectives are achieved and that there is a continuous improvement of health and safety standards. It will be reviewed annually and, if necessary, revised in the light of legislative or organisational changes.
